

Attention Browning Family:

Independent contractors do not have to follow a number of rules you are enforcing. Several other dancers have complained to me about these issues and I wanted to bring these to your attention. Enforcing these rules upon independent contractors makes them employees:

- Doing showtime
- Following DJ instructions
- Dancing 2-for-1 prices
- Not being allowed to leave early
- Wearing large plastic heels
- Not being allowed to stay in the dressing room during showtime
- Not being allowed to use the downstairs bathroom
- Being bullied to share tips with staff
- Forced nudity on stage
- Staying on stage

Kindly,

Wendy
